
Original PAIC models include hybrid−specific linear and squared age terms, summer rainfall and temperature.
Points are absolute mean differences; whiskers are pointwise 95% paired three−visit block−bootstrap intervals (1,000 resamples).
Weather contrasts are centred on observed means; the other weather variable is fixed and ages are averaged equally.